

IMMEDIATE FOLLOW-UP

- Complete the decision card - PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY!!!! The counselor should complete the card – not the inquirer.
- Get complete address & phone number – needed for follow-up
- Estimate age if it seems inappropriate to ask.
- Mark only one commitment
- Be sure to write your name and phone number on bottom of form
- Share “Download” booklet
- If they don’t have a Bible, make a note on the decision card.
- Go over page 5 in “My Commitment”
- Share with him/her that you will call in a couple of days to see how they are doing in the booklet.

VI. REPORTING

- Be sure the card is filled out completely and remove from the book. You will keep the bottom copy and give the original to an Advisor.
- Give the material to the inquirer and suggest they begin immediately working through the booklet.
- Encourage the inquirer to become affiliated with a local church. If the person came for salvation, encourage them to make a public profession in the church of their choice and follow Jesus in believer’s baptism.
- Take the inquirer to an advisor and introduce them – do not share the decision of the inquirer. Let the inquirer do this, they need to confess with their mouth.
- Advisor will ask inquirer, “What did God do for you tonight?”

VII. FOLLOW-UP

- Keep the bottom copy of the decision card of each inquirer. Be sure it is legible.
- Call each inquirer you counsel with within 48 hours. Ask if they have any questions.
- If possible, consider a personal visit.
- Ask, “How are you doing in your booklet? Are you going to be at church this Sunday?”
- Call inquirer after Sunday to see if he/she attended church.
- The main follow-up will be done by the churches.
- You may continue follow-up with visits and/or phone calls until the individual is established in a local church.
- Make yourself available to your Follow-up Leader to participate in your church’s follow-up plan after the crusade
- Pray daily for each one you have counseled during the crusade.

Counselor Training

“But how shall they ask him to save them unless they believe in him?”

... And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him?

... And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them?”

Romans 10:14 (TLB)
